Publication Scheme for Information Available under the Freedom of Information Act 2000

This policy is adapted from the model publication scheme which was prepared and approved by the Information Commissioner. PROSPER Learning Trust as a public authority will make information available to the public as part of its normal business activities. The information covered is included in the classes of information mentioned below, where this information is held by the PROSPER Learning Trust or/and its constituent academies (This will be referred to in this document as the Trust). Additional assistance is provided to the definition of these classes in sector specific guidance manuals issued by the Information Commissioner.

PROSPER Learning Trust is committed to:

- Proactively publish or otherwise make available as a matter of routine, information, including environmental information, which is held by the Trust and falls within the classifications below
- Specify the information which is held by the Trust and falls within the classifications below
- Proactively publish or otherwise make available as a matter of routine, information in line with the statements contained within this scheme
- Produce and publish the methods by which the specific information is made routinely available so that it can be easily identified and accessed by members of the public
- Review and update on a regular basis the information the Trust makes available under this scheme
- Produce a schedule of any fees charged for access to information which is made proactively available
- Make this publication scheme available to the public
- Publish any dataset held by the Trust that has been requested, and any updated versions it holds, unless the Trust is satisfied that it is not appropriate to do so; to publish the dataset, where reasonably practicable, in an electronic form that is capable for re-use; and, if any information in the dataset is a relevant copyright work and the Trust is the only owner, to make the information available for re-use under the terms of the Re-use of Public Sector Information Regulations 2015, if they apply, and otherwise under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act section 19

The term 'dataset' is defined in section 11(5) of the Freedom of Information Act 2006.

The term 'relevant copyright work' is defined in section 19(8) of that Act.

Classes of Information

This policy is a guide to the information which is currently published or which we will publish in the future. This information is available on the website www.prosperlearningtrust.co.uk or in paper (hard) copy and is categorised in 'Classes' as outlined later in the section named Guide to Information Available from PROSPER Learning Trust.

The classes of information will not generally include:

- Information the disclosure of which is prevented by law, or exempt under the Freedom of Information Act, or is otherwise properly considered to be protected from disclosure
- Information in draft form
- Information that is no longer readily available as it is contained in files that have been placed in archive storage, or is difficult to access for similar reasons

The Methods By Which Information Will Be Made Available.

The Guide to Information Available from PROSPER Learning Trust indicates clearly to the public what information is covered by this policy and how it can be obtained. Where it is within the capability of the Trust, information will be provided on the website.

Where it is impracticable to make information available on a website or when an individual does not wish to access the information by the website, the Trust will provide a hard (paper) copy of the information requested.

Information can be requested by email from admin@prosperlearningtrust.co.uk or in writing to:

Mr M Jones,
PROSPER Learning Trust
Linhope Road
Newcastle upon Tyne
NE5 2LW

Please make the subject of your request Publication Scheme Request.

In exceptional circumstances some information may be available only by viewing in person. Where this manner is specified, contact details will be provided. An appointment to view the information will be arranged within a reasonable timescale.

Information will be provided in the language in which it is held or in such other language that is legally required. Where the Trust is legally required to translate any information, it will do so.

Obligations under disability and discrimination legislation and any other legislation to provide information in other forms and formats will be adhered to when providing information in accordance with this policy.

Charges Which May Be Made For Information Published

The purpose of this policy is to make the maximum amount of information readily available at minimum inconvenience and cost to the public. Charges made by the Trust for routinely published material will be justified and transparent and kept to a minimum. Material which is published and accessed on a website will be provided free of charge. Charges may be made for information subject to a charging regime specified by Parliament.

Charges may be made for actual disbursements incurred such as:

- Photocopying
- Postage and packaging
- Costs directly incurred as a result of viewing information

In such instances you will be notified in advance.

Charges may also be made for information provided under this scheme where they are legally authorised, they are in all the circumstances, including the general principles of the right of access to information held by public authorities, justified and are in accordance with a published schedule or schedules of fees which is readily available to the public.

Charges may also be made for making datasets (or parts of datasets) that are relevant copyright works available for re-use. These charges will be in accordance with the terms of the Re-use of Public Sector Information Regulations 2015, where they apply, or with regulations made under section 11B of the Freedom of Information Act, or with other statutory powers of the public authority. If a charge is to be made, confirmation of the payment due will be given before the information is provided. Payment may be requested prior to provision of the information. Written requests information held by the Trust that is not published under this scheme can be requested in writing, when its provision will be considered in accordance with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act.

Guide to information available from PROSPER Learning Trust

Unless it is in the public interest to withhold information, it has to be released - PROSPER Learning Trust will apply the Public Interest Test before any qualification exemptions are applied.
